

REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
BUREAU OF IMMIGRATION
MAGALLANES DRIVE, INTRAMUROS
MANILA 1002

MEMORANDUM ORDER No. MCL-08- 039

(PHILIPPINE CITIZENS WITH DUAL OR MULTIPLE CITIZENSHIP)

Effective immediately, all immigration officers and concerned personnel are hereby directed to apply the following rules in the inspection of Filipinos who possess dual or multiple citizenship:

A. PROOF OF PHILIPPINE CITIZENSHIP

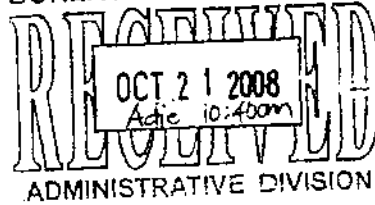

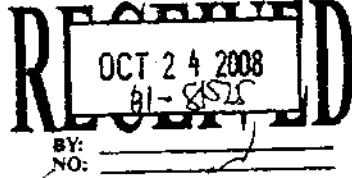

For purposes of this Memorandum Order, only the following shall be considered as substantial proof of Philippine citizenship:

1. Genuine and valid Philippine passport; or
2. Original Identification Certificate (IC) issued either by this Bureau or by the different Philippine Consulates pursuant to Memorandum Circular No. AFF-05-002; or
3. Original Certificate of Re-acquisition/Retention of Philippine Citizenship (CRPC) issued by this Bureau. (Note: green-colored certificate for petitioner/principal and blue-colored certificate for dependents, samples of which are hereto attached).

B. ARRIVAL AND STAY

1. Filipinos with dual or multiple citizenship shall present, upon arrival in any port of entry in the Philippines, either a Philippine or foreign passport.
2. Filipinos with dual or multiple citizenship who present a foreign passport, may be admitted for an indefinite period of stay, being a Filipino, provided, he/she also possesses and shows a genuine and valid: (1) Philippine passport, or (2) Identification Certificate (IC), or (3) Certificate of Re-acquisition/Retention of Philippine Citizenship (CRPC). In the foreign passport, the immigration officer shall put either of the following notation on the provision for the authorized stay in the arrival stamp:
 - a. "PP" – if a Philippine passport is also presented, or

m ^

- b. "IC" – if an Identification Certificate is presented, or
- c. "CRPC" – if a Certificate of Re-acquisition/Retention of Philippine Citizenship is presented.

C. DEPARTURE

Filipinos with dual or multiple citizenship, who presented a foreign passport at the time of their admission into the Philippines may be cleared for departure without need of surrendering a certificate, permit or proof of payment of impossible immigration fees, provided, he/she also shows a genuine and valid (1) Philippine passport, or (2) Identification Certificate (IC), or (3) Certificate of Re-acquisition/Retention of Philippine Citizenship (CRPC). However, if the Filipino does not have a Philippine passport, an Emigration Certificate of Clearance (ECC) fee of PhP710.00 shall be charged for using a foreign passport upon departure, if the authorized stay in the said foreign passport is not updated.

- D. In the arrival, stay and departure of Filipinos with dual or multiple citizenship where the Filipino presents a Philippine passport and a foreign passport, the arrival or departure stamp shall be stamped on both passports. In the foreign passports, the immigration officer shall put either of the following notation on the provision for the authorized stay in the arrival or departure stamp:
 - a. "PP" – if a Philippine passport is also presented, or
 - b. "IC" – if an Identification Certificate is presented, or
 - c. "CRPC" – if a Certificate of Re-acquisition/Retention of Philippine Citizenship is presented.

This Memorandum Order supersedes Memorandum Order No. AFF-04-025 dated 14 December 2004 and all inconsistent issuances by this Bureau.

For strict compliance.

21 OCT. 2008

MARCELINO C. LIBANAN
Commissioner

Copy Furnished: Department of Justice (DOJ)
All concerned.

Republic of the Philippines
Department of Justice
BUREAU OF IMMIGRATION

Certificate of Re-acquisition / Retention of Philippine Citizenship

NO. 0123456789

This is to certify that

Maria Antonette D. Bucasas a.k.a Maria Antonette D. Bucasas
Mangrobang, Female, September 25, 1971

has re-acquired/retained his/her Philippine Citizenship per Order of the Honorable Commissioner in CRR _____
pursuant to the Citizenship Retention and Re-acquisition
Act of 2003 (Republic Act 9225), in relation to Administrative Order
No. 91, Series of 2004 and Memorandum Circular No. 08-005,
said person having taken the oath of allegiance to the Republic of the Philippines on _____.

This certificate is issued on

Marcelino C. Silanan
Commissioner

Republic of the Philippines
Department of Justice
BUREAU OF IMMIGRATION

Certificate of Re-acquisition / Retention of Philippine Citizenship

No. 0123456789

This is to certify that

Maria Antonette D. Bucacas a.k.a Maria Antonette D. Bucacas
Mangrobang, Female, September 25, 1971

has derivatively re-acquired/retained his/her Philippine Citizenship per Order of the Honorable Commissioner in CRR _____ pursuant to the Citizenship Retention and Re-acquisition
Act of 2003 (Republic Act 9225), in relation to Administrative Order
No. 91, Series of 2004 and Memorandum Circular No. 08-005.

His/her principal having taken the oath of allegiance to the Republic of the Philippines on January 1, 2008 at Manila.

This certificate is issued on

Marcelino C. Silanan
Commissioner